Council Orders Crackdown On Dogs

No Action On Engineer Contract; To Study Law To Protect Newsboys

A crackdown on roaming dogs and use of the humane officer's tranquilizer gun in the capture of dogs were ordered Monday night by Granite City council members in face of a growing dog problem.

Other action included an order for study of city ordinances to determine if newsboys' paper wagons were allowed to carry reflectors or lights, a proposal on street coverage Monday where a new sign had been installed in the Nemoek area and the appointment of George Filcoff Jr. as city attorney.

There was no action on the engineering contract for the proposed new proposed Illinois Educational Television station, Mayor Davis said. The city has not yet been advised on the status of the proposed added charge to the city for labor and materials beyond the extra $25,000 fees for preliminary sewer studies.

"We have that clarified in a few days," Davis told the Press-Record.

8 Aldermen Absent

Also, three aldermen who have favored the extra contract were absent — Fred Von Schellert, Samuel Shackelford and Edmund Bartosik. Eight aldermen votes would be needed for passage.

Mayor Davis called for use of the tranquilizer gun by City Humane Officer Scott Craycraft in order to speed the picking up of dogs.

"We've had a lot of complaints in the past whenever we tried to use the gun, especially from pet owners, and I've been holding off on it because of the use of the gun," the Mayor said.

"With your permission, we'll put it back in use. It doesn't harm the animal; it merely puts it to sleep for a few minutes," he explained. The council gave its approval.

To Start Next Monday

Craycraft told the Press-Record he would use the gun next Monday to give dogs an opportunity to chain or pen their pets. He added that if a dog is not in good health, the machine in the gun could fail.

Public cooperation in keeping dogs penned or chained also was urged by several aldermen, who pointed out that the use of dog bite and the fear of mobsters to permit children to play outside or walk to school because of packs.

No actions were taken on adoption of a city ordinance to require a permit for the dog catcher, al. Feb. 28.

The appointment was approved by the city council Monday night by the council.

Filcoff Appointment Ok'd By GC Council

Appointment of George Filcoff Jr. as city attorney for Granite City was confirmed Monday night by Granite City council members. He was named by Mayor Davis to succeed John L. Fisher, who resigned as of March 1.

Filcoff resides at 2163 Bentown street with his wife, a two-year-old daughter, is a member of the First Baptist Church.

He is a native Granite Cityan who attended local schools before going to Washington University. He graduated from law school and practiced law in Granite City. He complained to individual aldermen of the large number of roaming dogs in the city.

The boy was given three infections with serum, brought to the city, it was reported to the city.

SIU Plans TV Network To Serve Area's Schools

Schools in the Quad-Cities are expected soon to have another educational television channel available for classroom work. It will be operated by Southern Illinois University with two satellite stations to be added to blanket the Quad-Cities.

Tentative approval for the added stations was given yesterday at a meeting of the new SWIUTV board, which includes the Quad-Cities and Edwardsville. Included is a proposal for a studio to be located at the Alton board.

The first step will be application to the Federal Communications Commission for assignment of two channels. "These would be UHF channels," President Delcie W. Morris told the board.

The two new transmitters are to be located near Carlinville for serving the western section of the state and at Newton on the east. Preliminary suggestion is the new campus or could be used to relay broadcasts from the Carbondale studio.

Statewide Network

All three stations would be owned by the university. The proposed network had an application for study of the proposed added charge to the city for labor and materials beyond the extra $25,000 fees for preliminary sewer studies.

"We have that clarified in a few days," Davis told the Press-Record.

GC Library To Expand Reference-Study Dept.

Children's Dept. To Be Relocated In Auditorium — Entrance On 20th St.

Expansion of the reference and study sections of the Granite City public library by relocating the children's department in the ground floor auditorium was decided upon Tuesday night by the board of trustees.

Increased use of the library for study by high school and college students was cited as the reason for making the change. It also was noted that with the change, youngsters will have more room on 20th Street of ground level.

Gerald Walters, president of the library board, said even greater use of the library's reference and study departments is anticipated and facilities now are overcrowded.

Stage To Be Removed

Librarian Mrs. Mary Genke will negotiate to seek removal of the auditorium by removal of the audience stage to provide additional space for book shelves, tables and chairs.

Most of the present furniture in the auditorium will be retained there because it matches other fixtures. No changes are contemplated in the fiction department or for the stage removal.

Bids for the stage removal are to be opened March 1, and the auditorium will be open as quickly as possible.

Hours To Be Set

Hours for the operation of the children's department in its new quarters are to be set later date by the board. However, it is contemplated that it will be open only in afternoons and early evenings except during the months when it will be open during daylight hours.

The entrance to the present auditorium is along 20th street at the rear of the library building.

The expansion of the reference and study departments and the new location for the children's department is expected

High River Stage, Gate Repairs Close Both Canal Locks

Unusually high water has forced a shutdown of the Chain of Rocks Locks 27 during the winter repair operations, halting navigation on the Mississippi River Tuesday afternoon.

Normally, the auxiliary locks would go into use, but waters that are expected to rise to 16 feet above normal on the St. Louis gauge preclude the use of the auxiliary facilities, according to the U.S. Army Corps of Engineers.

The overall rise at this time is two or three feet. The auxiliary locks were not designed to operate with the water so high, although plans are being proposed to allow the use of the auxiliary facilities to permit high water stage operations.

Repairing winter damage is normal at this time and normally would go on unnoticed. The damage is caused by thousands of pounds of ice pressure being exerted against the locks. Under repair and the unloading of boats leaves the main 1200-foot locks.

The overall rates for local taxpayers will depend on the amount of land for the East Side levee & Sanitary District.

Unless last year's 3.32 cent rate for the levee district is increased, most Quad-City property owners with the exception of Granite City will participate in minor tax rate reductions.

Rate Comparisons

Miss Holt said the rates are subject to change after being studied by the Board of Commissioners.

Removal Of Old Madison Sheds, Autos Sought

Madison Building Inspector Steve Kaman told the city council Tuesday night he will notify homeowners with dilapidated sheds and such unsightly objects as old auto bodies to clean up their property.

The move is in keeping with a general city-wide cleanup. Laundry buildings, sheds and garages are to be removed by the end of March.

Businesses of the council will be asked to contribute to the cleanup of their property.

Tentative Tax Rates Set For Quad-Cities

Subject To Change — New Figures For Levee District Not Yet Known

Tentative tax rates for most governmental agencies in the Quad-Cities will be announced shortly before noon today by County Clerk Miss Ellalia Holt at Edwardsburg.

Bills and claims totaling $16,942 were approved by the Venice school board Monday night at its regular March meeting, including $15,942 in educational fund expenditures.

General supplies and operating expenses accounted for $7,005 of the total, while school lunches added $1,492. Building fund expenses totaled $888. Transportation funds amounted to $219 and Illinois Municipal Retirement fund payments $530.

Teachers' retirement system contributions, withholding taxes, teachers' insurance payments and financial development fund payments from the educational fund totalled $6803.

Doors For Gymnasium

Supt. John O. Pier told the board he has asked several contractors to bid on replacement of two double doors and two single doors at the Venice grade school gym, double doors on the Seventh street side of the small high school and two single doors at Lincoln high school.

The Venice school doors, all exterior, are to be replaced with metal doors. Those at Lincoln will be replaced with new wood doors.

Pier said bids are to be in his office later this week.

Driver Training Praised

Pier read a report from state the high school driver education program. The report said the program was "excellently sound" and makes good use of audio-visual materials and other aids.

The school is fortunate to have a teacher who shows such interest in driver education instruction, the report concluded. The driver training instructor is Ormer Butt.

Pier reported that average daily attendance during February was 96.8% of the previous norm. He said he believed that was "very good, considering the bad weather and illness prevalent in the community."

Levee Board Approves Boat Dock Agreement

The East Side Levee and Sanitary District voted to lease a boat dock last night under which the Illinois Department of Conservation will construct and maintain a public boat dock on levee discharge channel in the mouth of the Hartland Canal.

The dock, to be built at the Lewis and Clark Memorial Grounds on the Mississippi River, is to cost no more than $12,000, the agreement stipulates. Plans must be approved by the levee board before the U.S. Army Corps of Engineers.

The boat dock is to be added to existing picnic and recreation facilities at the site, which is across from the conservation department. County Democratic Chairman Walter "Buck" Simons said plans it is expected to be completed by July.

The agreement signed by the levee board expires March 4, 1968, unless renewed before that date.

In other action, the board granted easements to Union Electric Co. for construction of power lines across a levee district property in the town of St. Clair county. A monthly engineering report and $16,965 payroll for the first half of February were approved.

Business Deductions Dinner Meeting Topic

Alton tax accountants for entertainment expenses, travel, "good will" dinners and similar expenditures will be discussed at a dinner meeting at 6:30 p.m. today at the Rose Bowl restaurant. About 100 persons are expected to attend.

The meeting, co-sponsored by the local Industrial Committee of the Tri-City Chamber of Commerce and the Internal Revenue Service, will feature three IRS specialists from the Springfield district office.

Dale Arnette, chairman of the co-sponsoring committee, said the meeting was arranged because of "an apparent great confusion and misunderstanding of new tax rules covering business expenses."

All C. of C. members, as well as guests, are invited to attend the meeting. Reservations may be made by telephoning the C. of C. office.

Our program will be Dwight T. Baptist, chief of the IRS field audit bureau; William T. Broadie Jr., audit supervisor; and Keith T. Lercher, IRS agent.

Venice Eighth Graders Show Science Projects

Eighth grade students at Venice grade school displayed exhibits in the school's third annual science fair yesterday, with first, second and third-place prizes awarded. Top rated entry was a working radio-intercom set built and operated by Francis Barr. Powered by flashlight batteries, the unit allowed Barr to hide under a desk and communicate with students in other parts of the room.

Second place ribbon went to Mike Essenspreis for an exhibit on the care and habits of white mice, while the third place entry was a model periscope entered by others.

GC Plays Alton Tonight, Collinsville Reaches Finals

Redbirds Shock Edwardsville, Kahoks Eliminate Madison In Regional Play

Collinsville's Kahoks, whooping and swooping in and around Madison defenses like an Indian war party attacking an unprotected wagon train, advanced to the finals of the Granite City regional basketball tournament here last night by wiping out the Trojans, 68-40.

Coach Vergil Fletcher's top-seeded bunch will watch from the stands tonight while Granite City and Alton meet for the third time this season in an eight o'clock contest to determine the Kahoks' fate in the Friday night wrapup.

Alton wasn't supposed to make the semifinals but did on a determined team effort Tuesday night which saw it upset third-seeded Edwardsville 63-58 after the Warriors had turned back Wood River, 60-54.

Third Granite City apparently will have its hands full here to-night, however, 9-12 having clipped the Warriors in one meeting early in the season and were one-point losers here for two. Either club will find Collinsville rough to handle Friday. The Kahoks won 68-40 over Alton Monday, 75-49, and have yet to be extended in the tourney. Madison made the semifinals Monday by tripping their district titlist Marquette 58-43.

Deft defense—Too

Deft defense, too. Deft defense behindhand that there was any thought of revenge in his mind over an 88-44 loss to Madison in the regional finals at Wood River just last March. Fletcher floored a club made up of first players who took part in that rout, and who deservedly have had many a look at a full-page newspaper spread devoted to an account of that game. The world-beating Collinsville history—still tucked to the bulletin board in Fletcher's office below a hand-lettered reminder, "Proud."

That raiding party made quick work of Madison, dropping in its first seven shots, rippling apart Madison's pressing defense and soaring to a 24-5 lead after one quarter had produced 12 baskets what he said to his players at halftime, but they came back to end half, 25-23.

After Skinner—Nothing

When Bell departed, so did Madison's faint hopes of making a comeback. Granville Sherrill had eight of the Trojans' 15 first-half points, finished with 15 to his credit, but eight other players could total only six more minutes between them.

Shortly after Bell's demise, both coaches began substituting.

The move didn't affect the game much, however, as the regulars riding the bench, was sprung to its surprise victory with a mussed-up first quarter. They jumped up to a 6-1 lead, but Alton's defense dropped back quickly to slow the Bengals' favorite run-and-shoot game and, on four occasions, forced out passes in the foreground.

Cold (4 for 16) from the floor, the Trojans got a break in the game. Fowlie was going to play when the little guard sank a jumper and converted a free throw at 2:15 for a 12-10 Alton lead. The visitors were in front to stay, but the firework were to come later.

A seldom seen "false double" was called during Alton and the Bengal lost a free throw opportunity when Earl Dancy stood too long at the line with the ball in the third quarter.

A technical foul was whistled against the Alton bunch in the stands continued to voice verbal objections, referee Bob Freels called for his ejection from the gymnasium—with a polisher's cap.

In the fourth period

Freels ejected Dancy from the game as the two clubs lined up under the grandstand basket for a couple of free throw attempts by Al Vest. Vest sank the two he had coming and the technical foul was whistled on the last points of the Redbirds.

Nine was as close as the Tigers could get, however, as Al Vest, a tall, thin, Assistant Coach Harold Matthews with an unexpected victory.

Edwardsville finished with a cold .375 from the floor, while the other three Alton defenders, 24 for 42 shots for 54%.

Vest Edwardsville's highly-rated court shooter missed his first eight attempts, a pattern followed by his teammates and ended which could not be offset by the Tigers' big edge (10) in rebounds.

Cant Crashes In

Granite City needed a big assist from its bench to beat off Wood River in Tuesday's first game, 15-14. Jim Cant, who got it from southpaw Jim Carr.

George Moore, who had scored six points in two previous games, was held scoreless and effectively boxed in by Wood River's sinking zone defense and totaled only 14 points before failing to score again.

Edwardsville, a patient team, which could not be offset by the Tigers' big edge (10) in rebounds.

The Shells, who probably would lead in balloting if the district's most disappointing team has selected this season over the last year, were before launching a shot against Collinsville's swimming defense and Jim Frazier's long set shot.

George Moore, who had scored six points in two previous games, was held scoreless and effectively boxed in by Wood River's sinking zone defense and totaled only 14 points before failing to score again.

Coach Bob Horton's tactics in shepherding Moors gave Larry Liley and Joe Hiles the shooting touch, however, and both matched Moore's point output, with Hiles getting 13 in the first half.

Hiles, a tall, thin giant who took charge of the boards as soon as he entered the game late in the first period with the Oilers holding a one-point lead.

Moore, who had a cold .375 from the floor, missed 11 of 13 shots, second only to Moore's 14, and also contributed 10 important points to the Warriors' cause.

Those three Cant hit rebound shots with the Warriors leading by only one.

Injured Jim Profitt, his right knee still ailing him, made his first appearance on the court since Feb. 23 as a replacement for Moore.

He took Profitt just 15 seconds to run down the court, hit a free throw, and added another later in the quarter, just to prove that damaged knee cartilage hasn't affected his shooting eye.

Preserve Lead

Moore's last basket and the two by Profitt were the only goals by the Warriors in the final minutes of play.

Bohmstiel and Brennan

the two remaining members of the big three, kept white Redbird fans cheering there was home to be popping in 30 points between them in somewhat limited appearance. Bohmstiel was in foul trouble, but Bohmstiel still felt the effects of flu.

The Shells, who ended a disastrous first season with a 1-10 record, made the trip a spiffy bit more respectable, but missed 15 free throws while Collinsville was converting 17 of 21 for 81%.

Marquette was in another gym when it came to free throw shooting, or so it appeared in the third period when the Trojans were hitting from at least 50% from the floor in every quarter, the Trojans missed seven straight at the line in the first quarter, and 3:30

The air was thick with smoke presented by Ron Holloman's Explorers enabled the Greenmen to click offensively, while the Redbirds just would not stay down in the heat of battle.

The Explorers blew no less than eight layups, four of them in succession, in the third period, and finished with a sub-par 27% in the final game.

Lined By 17

Marquette entered the final eight minutes trailing by seven but still in the game. Madison quietly expanded its lead to 10 points, then finished off by 27%.

Our firm agreed to dispose of this giant insurance smoke and soot damaged stock only if it could be offered at such ridiculously low prices as to guarantee its immediate and complete disposal, so that this stock would not have to be mixed with our regular inventory. Underwriters agreed to our offer and the Insurance Companies are taking the loss.

Fortunately the fire was confined to another area of the building and most of the furniture was only soot damaged, this could be cleaned. Many items are still in original cartons.

BARRICADED AGAIN early this week were sections of Jill avenue (above) and St. Clair avenue (right) where cave-ins occurred Monday evening, following a rain of 1½ inch.

The cave-in on Jill avenue was between Aubrey and Davis avenue where a section of the 15-inch sanitary sewer trunk installed by the Levee District was replaced by the city at a cost of $280,000 last year.

Deep frost thawing and the rain were blamed for the settling of the fill at both locations. On St. Clair avenue and Nameoki road, the smaller cave-in was near a deep well and where the abandoned trunk line had been filled with sand.

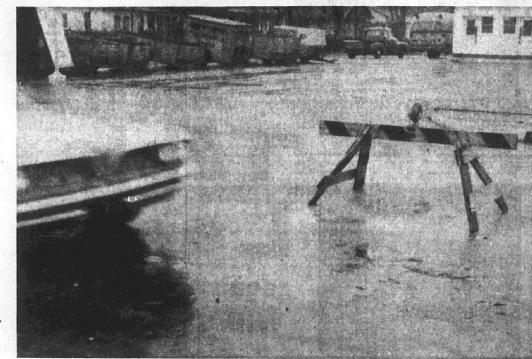

Repairs are covered by a warranty supplied by the contractor, it was learned.

reported by E. G. Schmitt. A May 1 U.S. C. of C. meeting is to be arranged with Sen. Aubrey, representing UF, and Homer Huber of the re-elect committee.

Schmitt also reported on the proposed action throughout the country for the recent adoption of a zoning code.

Harold F. Karandjeff, chairman of the Citizenship committee, is to address the Nameoki Women's Club March 20 on the Friends of Democracy program, and slides are to be bought for C. of C. use to promote the American Free Enterprise system.

Carl Ranft was named to a committee to study the need for giving a program on the St. Lawrence Seaway and Port of Chicago.

Baker announced reservations are being taken for the April 28-May 1 U.S. C. of C. meeting at Washington, D. C., and that Schmitt, Aubrey, and Baker had met with Wayne Hopkins, U.S. C. of C. district manager, Indianapolis, on national programs.

Reports on committee activities were given by Samuel Meyer, Committee on Adoption of W. Hoelscher, drainage and pollution, and state legislation, and Albert Froehling, civic improvement.

"No listing can count the many hours volunteers have put in. It does not include the contributions made by homeowners who had coffee hours. It does not include the added effort made by many people who had nothing financially by work in behalf of my candidacy," Sen. Simon said.

Sen. Simon Gives Annual Breakdown Of Income, Expenses

State Sen. Paul Simon (D), Troy, made public this week his annual income and campaign contributions and expenses.

Sen. Simon, whose first run for state representative in 1954 pledged to make public in detail

this information, is personal income amounted to $16,120, of which $8,607 came from the state

$8,555 from newspapers, $939

from talks, $116 from articles and $68 from dividends and inter-estents.

Campaign contributions amounted to $6,200 for his candidacy in Madison Jersey and

Greene counties, and campaign costs amounted to $8,000.

Sen. Simon pointed out the difference was made up from his own pocket. "In addition," he said,

"there were many costs of campaigns we cannot calculate—travel, lunches, secretarial help, etc. All of this means that campaigning contines to be an expensive proposition."

Campaign Dinner

Simon called attention to his campaign dinner and said his breakdown of contributions does not include each ticket but rather the names of persons who sold them.

One man, for example, sold 10 tickets, he is listed for $72.

He added that a list of purchasers is available at his office at the Troy Tribune.

"Last year, my business men were helpful, and for the dinner I must pay full credit to

teacher, who took upon himself

the burden of running the fund raising event."

"No listing can count the many hours volunteers have put in. It does not include the contributions made by homeowners who had coffee hours. It does not include the added effort made by many people who had nothing financially by work in behalf of my candidacy," Sen.

Simon said.

Airman Completes
Radio Repair Course

Airman Second Class Harry C. Rummel of Granite City has completed the United States Air Force technical training course for radio equipment repairmen at Keesler AFB, Miss.

Airman Rummel was trained in electronic principles, circuit theory, solid state, installation of radio transmitters, receivers and related ground radio equipment. He is being reassigned to a permanent base for his technical specialty. The airman is the grandson of Mrs. Tom Biggs, 2838 Pershing Avenue.

Promoted In Germany

Dale E. Jackson of Madison has been promoted to airman second class in the United States Air Force in Germany. Airman Jackson, a radio operator, is a graduate of Madison High School. His parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jackson, reside at 1538 Second Street.

Gains Cited In School Instruction, Counseling

Continuing efforts to improve instruction in the Granite City school system have resulted in general progress and many specific accomplishments, reports released by Superintendent Harold M. Kaiser.

The studies made in cooperation with secondary school principals and department heads also pinpointed areas where additional emphasis is recommended.

At Coolidge junior high school Principal Ralph Frohardt has called attention to progress in music, art and guidance.

Elementary Orientation

The school's Latin rhythm ensemble toured Mexico. Coolidge was host to the county junior high vocational music and ninth grade Girls' Athletic Association increased its membership, the school helped organize a new junior high school athletic association and orientation was given in elementary public and parochial schools last year, the principal related.

A Coolidge yearbook was issued; preparations were made for landscaping; a handbook book in 1962-63; curriculum additions were made in mathematics and science; classroom additions to the building were completed. Further emphasis is being placed this year on the track program—remedial, academic accelerated—and on the orchestra and speech department.

A Prather junior high, Principal P. A. Klemek, reported progress in the social studies language arts "block" program; greater balance in the industrial arts program and harmonious relationship between the school staff and students.

Teaching Guides

Continuing work is being done in the mathematics, sciences and block fields, and social studies—language arts "block" teaching guides have been placed in use.

Prather's English program is highly listed by Principal B. J. Davis who has included accelerating gifted pupils in the mathematics and block programs, offering remedial classes in reading areas, expanding library facilities and establishing an accelerated developmental reading program.

Attention also was called to expansion and continuation of the school science fair and art show.

Attention also was called to expansion and continuation of the school science fair and art show.

In the area of mathematics, two teachers attended National Science Foundation in-service training at St. Louis University. Four attended inservice training this year.

Through the National Defense Education Act all mathematics classes are well-equipped for any type of mathematics.

CHHS Curriculum Guide

The senior high school curriculum guide was completed with the exception of Russian, which will be added to the guide at the end of the 1962-63 year. This year we have an up-to-date curriculum guide in all areas of the academic school.

Plans were formulated for new guidance offices which are now in use," the principal noted.

Department heads participating were Joseph L. Hanson, business education; Miss Helen Courtney, English; Assistant Principal Steve Jones, guidance; Doctor C. Nelson, mathematics; Theodore J. Noeth, science; Alford L. Ziegler, social studies; and Mrs. Anne Thomas, developmental studies.

Miss Barbara Johnson is in charge of elementary physical education and junior high and high school girls' physical education, while Richard Yates head, junior high and high school boys' physical education and athletics.

Ted Schaefer Named To College ROTC Band

Ted Schaefer, 26-year-old aviator, a freshman electrical engineering major at Missouri School of Mines and Metallurgy in Rolla, has been named a member of the Missouri-ITC band for the school for this academic year. He plays trumpet. He is also a member of the football, concert, and military bands and the brass choir.

The band, a cooperative effort of the School of Mines and Metallurgy and the Department of Military Science, includes military, football, concert, and dance units as well as small ensemble groups. Membership in the band is determined through competitive audition and activities include performances at athletic events, concerts on campus and tour throughout the state and for military functions.

WATERFIELD QUALIFIED FOR STREET POSITION

To the Editor:

I would like to write this letter in favor of our present superintendent of streets, Bill Waterfield, who in my opinion has gone beyond the call of duty in order to do a good job.

He has always had time to talk to the people about their problems, and tries to help them in any way we can. We all know that he is a good man, and many times Mr. Waterfield has had to work night and day, especially during bad weather. I am trying to get him qualified for the job and to elect a qualified man would mean that our tax money would be well spent.

I would like to ask that you not only be for him, but be sure to go to the polls on April 2, and give him your vote. This way, you can be sure of putting the right man in office. Thank you.

BELIEVES OPPONENT PLANS HEAVY SPENDING

To the Editor:

Wanted—Volunteer workers to prove an election can be won without being bought.

It is a crime for a man to put his name on an election ballot if he is trying to be a political ally. Ballot boxes are not open to the public; this was the purpose of elections, to give the people a choice.

My husband, Tom Nesbit, is a candidate in the coming election for superintendent of streets. He is qualified to run for the job, since he has had 22 years experience building, maintaining and supervising men.

Yet we have had several anonymous phone calls asking our daredevils to run another incompetent. He has also been told that city hall is spending $7000 to see that he doesn't win.

For this reason, I'm asking for volunteers, to prove there is still such a thing as a free election.

285 Illinois Communities Enjoying Fluoride Benefits

Communities in Illinois enjoying the benefits of water containing fluoride now total 285, including Chicago. They have more than 6,000,000 residents—well over half the population of the state.

This information is contained in the latest annual report of the State Department of Public Health which strongly urges fluoridation of public water supplies as a safe and effective way of reducing future tooth decay by 60%.

The 285 do not include the Quad-Cities and other parts of the Illinois Metropolitan Area served by the East St. Louis and Interurban Water Co. The water firm is willing to begin fluoridation—already approved by most of the cities—but is awaiting official action in Granite City, Belleville and Swansea.

A fluoridation referendum is scheduled in Belleville this spring, and we hope the people there have better luck. Granite Cityans voted it in at the request of the city council, but the council voted it out. This can be remedied by another council vote.

The 285 communities include 142 having sufficient fluoride in their drinking water without any being added. For the first time, this number has been exceeded by those that increase the fluoride content of their water. The 14 communities joining the list in 1962 boosted the number with fluoridation to 143.

An Illinois health officials point out, dental health is an "inseparable component of total health."

Madison and Venice aldermen have enacted fluoridation ordinances, and the Granite City public has overwhelmingly endorsed the program. Granite City council members up for re-election who voted against fluoridation are Aldermen Nunn of the Fifth Ward, Shuckford of the Sixth Ward and Vesci of the Eighth Ward.

Proposed River Boat Docks Would Be Put To Good Use

Now that the federal government has made it clear that all navigable waters must be made relatively free of pollution, Quad-Cityans can look forward to increasing use of the Mississippi River for recreational purposes. Two public boat docks proposed for the Mississippi within Madison county could be long-term assets making the river more accessible to local residents.

With Venice officials taking the lead in seeking docks and ramps to be operated by the Illinois Conservation Department, an easement for property at the river's junction with the Hartford Canal has been obtained from the East Side Levee and Survey District. Negotiations are continuing for a similar easement from the Union Electric Co. at a point in Venice.

The Venice boat launching site would be most convenient for this community, and the Hartford location also has much to offer in that it would be adjacent to a state picnic area already in existence. In view of the large number of local water sports enthusiasts, it seems sure that the facilities under discussion would be put to good use.

broken garbage cans.

I am proud to be a Naper sinner. He is a Naper sinner and, after election, forgot the problems. Only thing they did was draw salary, never trying to help improve our ward. That was the type of alderman we had for many years.

When Nonn was elected 20 years ago, he took over a rundown ward—streets and buildings were bad. There was no tax money had been spent in our ward in years. First thing he did was to get Denver street curbed and paved. Then he got a new street lighted.

He has always had time to talk to the people about their problems, and tries to help them in any way we can. We all know that he is a good man, and many times Mr. Waterfield has had to work night and day, especially during bad weather.

I am trying to get him qualified for the job and to elect a qualified man would mean that our tax money would be well spent.

DEFENDS COUNCIL VOTES ON ENGINEER, GARBAGE

To the Editor:

If I were in the Special Political Study Committee, I would recommend that the purpose of the committee was to gather all the information possible on the subject.

I was under the impression that the purpose of the committee was to gather all the information possible on the subject. Since the first firm was not invited to the committee, must have felt they were not invited to do the job, the committee would not have invited him.

How can we be sure that the $25,000 would not be included in the local firm's overall bid, if the new engineer is not invited?

As most of the public knows, quality workmanship costs money.

I received by mail and phone from the engineer who is in this engineer fee. These men don't care about saving the taxpayers money by doing a good job.

They sure don't have the taxpayers' interest in mind.

I'm for a new council, except those people who want some one up for re-election.

I'm glad for the answers I've received by mail and phone. Every one of the aldermen is satisfied; no one is perfect. Let's work together and vote in a new council next year.

I would also like to congratulate the aldermen who voted for the new garbage collection contract. This has been the first time in many years that I have not had to call to have it picked up.

The collection has been twice as frequent, even on the deadest days.

Nonn likes to see men put out of their jobs, but no one is guaranteed a lifetime job.

Who are the garbage men trying to protect? They have a job and didn't take care of it. Now the collections are regular, and

You have heard of big com-

Laclede Steel Expansion Will Maintain, Increase Work Force

Expansion of the Laclede Steel Co. plant in Madison reflects the company's determination to keep pace with other firms in the intense competition for sale of steel joists used in the construction field.

In enlarging its joist fabricating capacity from three to four lines, and making plans for future installation of fifth and sixth lines, Laclede also is increasing the space available for other fabricating processes, storage and shipping.

Although no immediate employment gains have been promised, future boosts are anticipated and the expansion gives added assurance that the present work force can be maintained.

As nationwide construction work increases this spring, Laclede and its Madison plant will be ready to provide a substantial share of the structural materials.

Sports Realm Receiving Much Attention From Legislators

Are Illinois legislators "good sports?" We do not know, but the subject of sports has garnered more than its usual share of attention in the first third of the current lawmaking session at Springfield.

Athletic events debated on the House and Senate floors have included:

Horse racing—One bill would increase the state's share of race track betting to 2½%; another proposal would permit regular and harness racing throughout the year.

Boating—Proof of use tax payment is to be mandatory; certificate numbers are issued for newly-purchased motorboats.

Professional boxing—Complete abolition has been proposed.

Boxing and wrestling promoters—They and trainers and managers would be held responsible for a felony; and managers would be limited to 20% shares of the receipts; and they would be prohibited to send fighters over 40 years of age to the ring.

Football even has gotten into the act with a proud legislator's introduction of a resolution praising the Fenwick team of Oak Park for a successful 1962 season.

Weightier matters no doubt will receive due consideration during the course of the six-month General Assembly meeting, but it is clear that the members have more than a passing interest in the realm of sports. The racing lobby, for example, is regarded as the most powerful of any in the state.

State Public Aid Costly Enough Without Subsidizing Strikes

Because it involves subsidizing one of the two parties in a strike, payment of public welfare funds to strikers should be halted by the state government.

The right to strike against industries and businesses is enshrined in state and federal laws, but it is also a right of freedom of association to the participants, just as there is no guarantee against inconvenience for the employer and the public during work stoppages.

As noted by the eight senators who have just introduced appropriate legislation, it was not the General Assembly that would authorize payments to strikers when it set up the public welfare code.

But under administrative interpretations such individuals are merely listed as "unemployed," it was disclosed in 1961.

Requests for a halt in such fund allocations—a factor in the current state financial dilemma—have been ignored, indicating the need for a more clearly-worded act that cannot be misinterpreted and misused.

Plumbicare is a plan by which we can save through social security for our old-age plumbing bills. It is a known fact that people over 65 have more plumbing trouble than do younger people. Then the way will be clear for Electricare, Autocare, Tevecare—and the ultimate goal of our welfare state, Embalmicare. (Port Townsend, Wash., Leader.)

paines stocking up against a possible steel strike this summer.

Are township relief, state aid and old-age disability payments to be discontinued for more money where do we taxpayers come in?

Take the police on any segment of the city's population. The police are not the only ones who have to go after, so you see we have a bad political system. Now, railroad workers want the government to intervene. I don't believe that, but the police have to do it.

We are being taken back to the stone age. The police are the ones who have to go after us. They are the ones who have to go after us.

They are trying to tell you things won't cost you any more. Are they kidding? Only time will tell, but taxes are already too high. Didn't we want to organize against high taxes?

APRIL VOTE CAN IMPROVE CONDUCT OF GOVERNMENT

To the Editor:

Take inventory of the past 18 years of city government. What is the answer to your question for a long time?

I called you at your house and asked you why the portable stoplight being stored at the Sherman service station was not being used during rush hour.

I also asked you if the light was not used, why didn't the police do it? You didn't care what was happening in this part of the city. I also referred to you as one of the aldermen who was not doing his job. What was telling what and how to do.

You denied being one of the aldermen that was letting Mayor Harbo run him in, and regarding the possible light, you said you didn't care what was happening in this part of the city.

Why did you abuse your American heritage in this manner? Why do you let high-paid officials work with you?

Everyone is entitled to a voice in the conduct of government. Is the police department adequate for the residential needs?

Do we have sufficiently diversified industrial enterprises to keep our people employed?

Check the present drain on our state tax funds from unemploy-

ARMY SIGNAL CORPS

MARCHING 100TH YEAR

To the Editor:

"Get the message through"

has been an inflexible rule of the Signal Corps since its establishment as a separate branch of the Army in 1920.

Now, however, the Corps

The mission of the Governor's

Conference on Literacy and

A request for a no-parking zone to be established on the west side of Adams street and the alley west of Center street was presented to the Granite City council Monday night by Fred Ward Alderman Paul Aldridge.

He explained that with new warehouses at the west end of 24th street, parking has increased causing traffic jams on Center street and West Pontoon road, and also to determine the time limit on the blocking of crossings of Center street.

An ordinance is to be prepared. The city was notified by the state that Chestnut street has been designated as an arterial thoroughfare between Niedringhaus avenue and St. Louis street, and the city engineering staff was authorized to begin drawing plans for its improvement with motor fuel tax funds.

Flecko also was asked to write officials of Nameoki township to determine if the township will be allowed to extend the curve of Johnson road at the curve which is outside city limits. The city is hopeful of acquiring the right-of-way to begin an improvement project with motor fuel tax funds.

The workshop has been devised to give mothers and fathers the opportunity to help their children in overcoming the handicapping results of hearing loss. Thomas said knowledge of how to care for the deaf child is offered to parents in the valuable pre-school years.

"Each parent has an opportunity to work with other children; consult with an otologist, audiologist, psychologist, social worker and other specialists which do much demonstration of work with deaf children; and attend classes to learn more about his child."

Thomas said parents can supervise play activities for the child while his parent is attending talks, demonstrations and classes. Maximum value is obtained when both parents attend.

Free Workshop For Parents Of Pre-School Deaf

Application forms for the state's 19th annual school for parents of pre-school deaf children will be available at the Illinois Commerce Commission to seek an order for railroads to repair the railroad grade crossing at 19th, 20th, 22nd and 23rd streets and West Pontoon road, and also to determine the time limit on the blocking of crossings of Center street.

The hearing originally was set for March 23 after the three accused, not guilty to charges of being drunk, were charged after a bar patron was beaten by Collingsville Sheriff George Ramach. The date was changed at Ramach's request because a criminal witness will be out of town.

Application for admission must be submitted before April 1 to the Division of Services for Crippled Children, 1105 South Sixth street, Springfield, Ill.

There is no charge for admission, board and medical expenses.

Medical service also is made available when needed.

The families pay their own transportation and personal expenses.

The parents and children must live in Illinois, and the deaf or hearing impaired child must be under six years of age.

Other requirements include the ability to give attention and faithfulness to the task of assisting their children in overcoming the handicapping results of hearing loss.

Knowledge of how to care for the deaf child is offered to parents in the valuable pre-school years.

"Each parent has an opportunity to give attention and faithfulness to the task of assisting their children in overcoming the handicapping results of hearing loss," Thomas said.

Southern Baptists Aid Cuban Refugee Families

Southern Baptists have resettled more than 600 Cuban refugees from among the 150,000 who came to the United States since Castro gained control of the island's government, according to an announcement this week by Rev. George Sagen pastor of First Baptist Church here.

Churches sponsoring Cuban families range from the 40-member North City Baptist Church in Seattle, Wash., to the 6000 member First Church of Oklahoma City.

One church in Georgia has started a Spanish department in its Sunday school, reporting more than 20 attending at times. Other churches are asking for more information on the program.

All agencies engaged in resettlement have placed more than 53,393 of the refugees outside the Miami, Fla., area.

Farm Column

By TRUMAN W. MAY

Median County Farm Advisor

National 4-H Club Week is being observed this week.

4-H has played a major role in making agriculture the American success story it is today.

When the first 4-H Clubs were formed nearly 50 years ago, educators saw the program as a stepping stone to improved farming and homemaking practices on the nation's farms. Many farmers were then too busy to accept new-fangled ideas coming out of the nation's colleges. They were more willing to let their sons try these ideas out.

So the idea spread to work with the boys first and, through them, reach the dads. The 4-H project was the door through which many young people in agriculture were introduced to many farms. New varieties of seed, cultural practices, methods of insect and disease control were taught. Improved breeds of 4-H member before they were generally accepted by adults.

Naturally, during these early years, the emphasis in agriculture in 4-H was placed on the traditional projects acceptable to rural boys and girls. However, times have changed and so has the 4-H program.

With this changing emphasis goes a change in the image of 4-H. Instead of a woman's arm around a boy or a girl in her apron with a mixing bowl, R. O. Lyon, state 4-H coordinator at the University of Illinois, says the modern projects still play a major and important role in today's 4-H program. But our projects are activities, he says. He added which rank among the nation's best vocational guidance and career exploration opportunities.

Two important changes have taken place on the nation's farms which have affected the goals of the 4-H program. For one, modern farmers are more mobile, according to new ideas. But even more important is the population shift from the farm to urban areas.

Today, about 15 percent of the nation's farm youth expect to own and operate farms that will provide an adequate income. This means that 85% of our farm youth must participate partial or full-time off-farm employment.

4-H is moving to meet this challenge. One big step is the added emphasis on projects and activities that aid in vocational guidance and career exploration.

Projects now available include automotive care and safety, creative crafts, electricity, money management, photography, food preserving, food processing, home grounds improvement, entomology, clothing, room improvement and foods and nutrition.

These programs are being strengthened by added emphasis on leadership development, public speaking, community improvement, social and physical development.

Many of the new 4-H programs are equally as appealing and useful to both boys and girls as to those who live on the farm. Today, nearly two of every five 4-H'ers live in the city.

Two new herbicides that have become available this year may give farmers a welcome range of control over weed problems.

Lorox is a chemical that has potential use as a directed post-emergence herbicide in corn or as a pre-emergence treatment of both annual grasses and broadleaf weeds has been obtained from pre-emergence treatments. Tests at the Illinois Experiment Station show characteristics that influence the success of Lorox. It has performed more consistently on grasses that are low in organic matter than grasses that have a high organic matter content. Neither corn nor soybeans appear to have exceptional tolerance to Lorox, but they may have enough to tolerate it. The amount of material is properly applied. Rates of 2.44 to 2.64 pounds per acre broadcast as two pounds per acre of active ingredients, broadcast — approximately four light soils, while four pounds will probably be required on clay soils that are high in organic matter.

Ergo-24-D is a combination of older herbicides used as a pre-emergence non-incorporated treatment of corn.

The rate of two pounds of ergo-24-D per acre rates consistent with other pre-emergence treatments. Further testing on a wide area is needed to determine the future usefulness of this combination.

The Illinois Foundation FFA recently presented sixteen $50 scholarships to students enrolled in the University of Illinois Winter School of Science and Letters and women former vocational agriculture students active in the Future Farmers of America who, outstanding in their field.

Richard Gieseke, of Hamel township, who is attending the short course.

4-H Club Federation Enrollment at the six-weeks course is 153, an increase of 40% over last year.

The Illinois Foundation FFA

is the largest organization in the country to prepare federal income tax forms. The deadline for filing returns is Monday, April 15.

For those desiring assistance in the preparation of forms go to the city hall in Granite City any Friday through April 12 or on the deadline date. IRS personnel will be on duty from 8 a.m. to 4 p.m. in the council room on the second floor.

Miss Veta Fandrich, executive director of the River Bluff Girl Scout Council with headquarters in Edaville, is one of 50 Girl Scout officials selected to attend the executive training course being held at the Sherman Hotel in Excelsior Springs, Mo. The meeting opened Saturday and will continue through March 15.

The announcement is made by Mrs. John H. Marsh of Belleville, president of the Council.

HOW TO FORCE EARLY-FLOWERING SHRUBS

I received a call asking when they could bring poinsettias into bloom. Please help me to cut branches of early-flowering shrubs for forcing six to eight weeks before natural blooming time. Please this time, as flower buds will not give good results.

To encourage flowering, here are the steps: Split or pound the stems to make them pliable, help them take up water. Place the branches in a deep container of warm water (about 65 to 70 degrees F.) in a semi-dark place with moderate heat and as high a humidity as possible until the flowers appear.

Supply additional moisture to the branches by spraying or hand spraying or laundry sprinkler works well for this purpose. Change water daily in the container every few days. Once a week cut one-half inch from the base of the stems, preferably at an angle. To keep florists' foam from getting dirty and hot water (100 to 110 degrees F.) and let the water cool naturally.

On the other hand, if the flowers are dead, cut them off, move them to a cooler room. But, at whatever temperature you keep, the branches avoid abrupt changes during the forcing process.

Forsythia is perhaps the most common early-flowering shrub, it is not the only one that will work. Others that can be forced are crabapple, dogwood, flowering or Japanese quince, redbud, hortensia, flowering almond and purple wisteria.

LOOK FOR "ILLINOIS 6"

Even if gardening seems a long way off, some planning and "shopping around" for improved varieties will be well worth the effort. Others that are not as popular are crabapple, dogwood, flowering or Japanese quince, redbud, hortensia, flowering almond and purple wisteria.

The new variety of pepper has many advantages over existing recommended varieties. It's earlier—matures in 60 days—earlier, reaches well in warm weather and bears prolifically throughout the entire season. May be a deeper indentation between the lobes than other recommended varieties, but its ability to set a heavy crop more than offsets these disadvantages.

Some local suppliers may not have ordered this new improved variety, so asking for Illinois 6 variety when you order from a catalog company might be your best bet. And, this summer when you are harvesting these peppers from your garden, remember you didn't "sell" for any other variety.

Illinois 6 is developed by A. E. Thompson of the University of Illinois horticulture department, who has an even better bell pepper in the developmental stage. It should be available in stages over three years. But until it's available, Illinois 6 is your best choice.
